

No One Really Knows

Psychopunch

I can't tell you how I feel my head is spinning like a wheel
I can't this anymore so I throw up on the floor Can't remember what I did last night It's hard to live but I'm still Alright - I can tell you this for real it's the way I feel, but

No one, no one really knows but I'm still alive but it feels like I'm dead
No one, no one really knows
but I'm still alive although it looks like I'm dead

Do you do you wanna take me home or do I have to spend the night alone
What am I suppose to do am I good enough for you Well I know what you must think that I had too much to drink
I don't care what people say I'll still do it anyway

No one, no one really knows
but I'm still alive but it feels like I'm dead
No one, no one really knows (really knows)
but I'm still alive although it looks like I'm dead

Maybe tomorrow things have changed but tonight's a night in the cold and Rain Too much Whiskey once again well I drink to ease the pain Well I know that life is cruel you try to treat me like a fool
I can tell you that I don't care you're the asshole of the year

No one no one really knows
but I'm still alive but it feels like I'm dead
No one no one really knows (really knows) but I'm still alive although it looks like I'm dead - I am alive

No one, no one really knows but I'm still alive it might look like I'm dead , no way

No one, no one really knows
but I'm still alive but it feels like I'm dead
No one, no one really knows (really knows) but I am alive , I am alive although it looks like I'm dead

No one, no one really knows
but I'm still alive but it feels like I'm dead
No one, no one really knows (really knows) but I am alive , I am alive , I am alive , I am alive
