Soulless (The Makers Reflection)

Psyclon Nine

We are the sons of perdition we are the daughters of hate we are the soulless, the fallen we are the fire and flame

i am the ash of disease i am the kiss of corruption i am the: this is the end i am the fire and flame

[we the fallen are the fire, we the fallen are the flame]
