

Bring Me Down

Puddle of Mudd

Make no promises to me
you slowly melting
wake up then fall back asleep your quickly fading hey man you'll have to wait your turn I can see that you jonesin taste no flavors on my tongue they've evaporated, you've disintegrated

why you gotta bring me down why you gotta bring me

karma comes around two times so you better be good watch out for all familiar signs when your going the wrong way look backs in to those devious minds they keep pushing and pulling baby Jesus never sleeps when your being a sinner yeah he'll eat you for dinner

I can see that your jonesin

so don't bring me down
