

Prisoner

Puddle of Mudd

Twisting thoughts of delusions
Corrupt my mind
I can't find the conclusion
I'm running out of t-t-time

I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
Put away

I don't know what to feel
I don't know what to think
All I know is that it comes from here
You should know this boy don't play

I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
Put away

I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
I stand alone by myself
You can't take me
Put away

Prisone
