

Finding My Place (Phase 2)

Pulse Ultra

Sometime soon I think I'll find my place Never fit into the mold I was given, but am I too afraid to find out what I am
Or is there something in my way that I don't know about

Sorry if I failed you
I don't know me
I won't know my face
So find me my place

I don't want us to end our lives in the confines of a cubicle so sterile, but who am I to say what you consider bliss
I'm just warning you that all the straps will hold you down

Sorry if I failed you
I don't know me
I won't know my face
So find me my place

Can't you see? that I don't share or care for the dreams you have,
the dreams you have for me

Sorry if I failed you
I don't know me
I won't know my face
So find me my place

Sorry if I failed you
I don't know me
I won't know my face
So find me my place.
