

Developing You, Camera

Punchline

Disposable like memories
Pictures I'm afraid to see
I'll drop them in and hang my head
Repeating the last words she said:

"Get older, and then get over me"

Developing you,
Bringing you back to me now,
Proving the girl that got away from me somehow,
They're all that I have of you

I can't bare to look
At all the stacks of photobooks, but now
To add to the lost ones means I'll have to open them again

Developing you,
Bringing you back to me now, (camera)
Proving the girl that got away from me somehow, (camera)
It's all that I have of you
They're all that I have of you

Developing you,
Bringing you back to me now, (camera)
Proving the girl that got away from me somehow, (yeah yeah!)
She's leaving it all behind,
But that's what she really wants
Yeah, she knows that she's the girl that got away from me somehow (camera)
It's all that I have of you
They're all that I have of you
You're all that I have...
