

The shape was rectangular
The color was purple
And I was a kid
Spinning a globe around
Yeah, picking out places that I wanted to live.

You grew up in a fairy tale world
But you can't spin the earth
And you can't figure it out.

You're at home
You can tell when you see the bridges and bell
Pennsylvania's the home that you know that you can always come back to.
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah. Woah.

Belle Vernon!
Allentown and nanty glow, Red lion, Edinboro,
We have a California and a jersey shore
Is Bethlehem where Jesus' was born?

Oh man, in nature at each other's necks.
Birds in the east, and steel in the west.
The lion on the mountain and the panthers pit.
But it's friendly competition and that's just it.

You're at home
You can tell when you see the bridges and bell
Pennsylvania's the home that you know that you can always come back to.

We have 67 counties, and no dominant political party
The declaration of indy was signed out in Philly
And Pittsburgh has more bridges than any other city,
Not counting Venice.

You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
(I'm coming home)
You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
(Come back home, I'm coming home)
You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
(I'm coming home)
You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
(Come back home, I'm coming home)

You're at home
You can tell when you hear the liberty
Pennsylvania's the home that you know that you can always come back to.

You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
You've got a friend in Pennsylvania
