

Dreamers

Push Play

And i'm wandering aimlessly to get you off of my mind, the city lights shine so bright, brings back the look in your eyes Speechless, emotionless can you hear me?

(can you hear me?)

So heres your song for what i've done wrong,
how could this happen?

Singing we were dreamers
every single day,
singing we were believers
in every single way.

And i'm running out just to try to catch you, out of breath, hopelessness and i'm running out of clever words to keep you here with me, smiling and i'm keeping out the thousands of emotions in my head on the bed
so here's your song for what i've done wrong

Singing we were dreamers,
singing we were believers,
in every single way

I'm never ready to go, (go) ohhh.
Do-do-do do-do-do, do-do-do do do-do do-do-do do do do-do do...

Singing we were dreamers
every single day
singing we were believers
in every single way

We'll take it fast we'll take it slow.
Just hold on and don't let go
Faster now then ever before
Close your eyes and shut the door.

We'll take it fast we'll take it slow
Just hold on and don't let go
Faster now then ever before

Dreamers...
