

Hey Joe

Pussycat

The awesome kind of a man
Glad to see you again, hey Joe
No more wastin' your time
For wild women or wine
Like some years ago

You leave nothing to guess
You've been tastin' success, hey Joe
Of all friends that I knew
I kept thinking of you
Since the day you were gone

Hey Joe, I've told you so
Easy come and easy go
And the show's still pullin' strong
As long as time's goin' on it takes us all

Hey Joe, you look away
You're sure you're okay?
Don't know what I say
To held you again

Hey Joe, let's have a ball
You're here after all
We call in the past
I never will, hey Joe

Some are born to change times
Some for nickles and dimes, hey Joe
If I look at my past
I've been one of the last
But with no regrets at all

Hey Joe, I've told you so
Easy come and easy go
And the show's still pullin' strong
As long as time's goin' on it takes us all

Hey Joe, you look away
You're sure you're okay?
Don't know what I say
To held you again

Hey Joe, let's have a ball
You're here after all
We call in the past
I never will, hey Joe
I think I'll always do, hey, Joe
I think I'll always do
