

Rain

Pussycat

Loving him was easier one sunny day
Just a simple touch could make me fly away
Kisses on a summer evening
Looking at a perfect evening for the sky
Should I wonder why?
I can feel the falling rain
I can feel the falling rain
It's sad to be alone
So please don't take me home
Rain falling down on me
You may cover the trace of tears on my face
He'd rather see
Rain rain rain falling everywhere
On a bright summer morning he'll call again

Don't let him try in vain
Feel the rain
Trees are crying rivers down the cloudy hill
Raindrops chase away the lonely daffodil
Memories of loving last night looking at the broken twilight
Maybe I shouldn't wonder why
I can feel the falling rain
I can feel the falling rain
I can feel the falling rain
I can feel the falling rain
I can feel the falling rain
