

Through the Flames

Pyogenesis

I don't trust the things you said to me
The can't be true
I don't trust your hands, they're burning me
Burning me, burning me
Yeah it's true and I go

Why did you betray
For me there's no need to stay

At the flames
When I hear you calling my name
An it's always the same
When I hear you calling my name
At the flames

Repeat

In sadness I will dwell
Indestructible hell

At the flames
I'm leaning on her grave
No tears I feel so save
When I'm leaning on her grave
At the flames
At the flames
I don't hear her calling my name
Never more it is the same
I don't hear her calling my name
At the flames
