

Betray My Heart

Pythia

One little kiss
For all your secrets
One for every spell you cast
Turn the page to find a potion
That will cure an aching heart
I'll cry a tear of sadness
Every single time we touch
But you will not set me free
You hunger for my blood too much

Though I begged for you to leave me
Cut the cord that ties us true
Still you weave your magic further
And I find I'm bound to you
Never taste the brew that binds you
For you're done with every sip
Poisoned ivy, blood red rose
And every curse that goes with it

Rocky is the road to heaven
Hell is smoothly paved
Misery's the truth of sinners
Never to be saved

Betray my heart
With your dark fire
I cannot leave me in desire
Betray my heart
It brings me under
You cannot break this spell I'm under
Betray my heart

I have played each ace and joker
I have played a fragile maid
I have tried to heal your demons
Left you lonely I have strayed
But each way I play my cards I cannot find the winning hand
Cannot leave your love behind me
Cannot leave this better land

Rocky is the road to heaven
Hell is smoothly paved
Misery's the truth of sinners
Never to be saved

Betray my heart
With your dark fire
I cannot leave me in desire
Betray my heart
It brings me under
You will not break this spell I'm under
Betray my heart

One little kiss for all your secrets
One for every bruise I get
One for those who tie us down to every broken love affair

Take the gun and pull the trigger
Still the magic flows and burns
Still I hope to take each other
Still the hungry wolf returns

Rocky is the road to heaven
Hell is smoothly paved
Misery's the truth of sinners
Never to be saved

Betray my heart
With your dark fire
I cannot leave me in desire
Betray my heart
It leaves me under
You cannot break this spell I'm under
