

Oh baby please listen to what I'm gonna say

I like to see your face when you are smiling, yeah
Now tell me that you love me and do me no wrong
You got the sexy legs, oh baby I love you so strong

It's a long way to your heart but I know that I will be the victor

You cannot always say to me that I must go away
And one day you will see that I'm gonna take you, yeah

Ramblin' On My Mind

I got ramblin' on my mind
I got ramblin' on my mind
Is to leave my baby
Cause she treats me so unkind

I'm going down to the station
Catch the fast milk train you see
I'm going down to the station
Catch the fast milk train you see
I got the blues about Miss so-and-so
And some kind of blues about me

I got mean things
I got mean things on my mind
Well I got mean things
I got mean things on my mind
Is to leave my baby
Cause she treats me so unkind

I got ramblin', I got ramblin' on my mind
I got ramblin', I got ramblin' on my mind
Is to leave my baby
