

Right Kind of Love

Quarterflash

Baby, your love, it surrounds me,
but never gives me half a chance,
I need a little heart and affection,
Cause love needs a little romance.
And we'll never ever make it,
If you're pushin' me,
You've got to back off baby,
or I might leave you.
Gotta show me, hold me,
let love breathe tonight.

Give me the right kind of love, oh baby,
Give me the right kind of love,
Give me the right kind of love,
And I'll be yours, tonight.
I'll be yours.

Baby, you want some kind of promise,
Oh, ah, nothing is forever these days.
Lovers come and go,
Friends bought and sold,
Everything blows away.
You know, everything's changing baby,
Over night,
You gotta hold on to love,
But not too tight,
You've got see it, see it, it's not for long,
But all right.

Give me the right kind of love, oh baby,
Give me the right kind of love,
Give me the right kind of love,
And I'll be yours, tonight.
I'll be yours

Just tell me that love is right,
And look me in the eye.
I've got to know your heart tonight,
Before I give away a piece of my life.

Oh, give me the right kind of love, oh baby,
Give me the right kind of love.
Give me the right kind of love, oh baby,
Give me the right kind of love.

Oh, give me the right kind of love, oh baby,
Give me the right kind of love.
