

It's Raining

Quasi

It's raining, It's raining.

There is nothing you can do
It doesn't only rain on you
But you're acting all upset like you're the only one who is wet

It's raining, It's raining.

There is nothing we can do
Its raining on me too
You moan and you cry
But it won't effect the sky.

You're not a saint
You're not a savior
Or a devil
Its agreed
Oh lucky you oh lucky me
We have more of those than we need.

And when you give me gifts and money
I'm a swine before the pearl
It only serves to remind me that we are all alone in this world

It's raining, It's raining,

And I can't tell you when the storm is gonna end
So go ahead and cry but that won't keep you dry.
