

Peace and Love

Quasi

Peace and love ain't no game
Peace and love ain't no shame
You never what you need
In a world of fear and greed
Peace and love, peace and love!

The monster meets his match
Tear it down, start from scratch, ohhh

Peace and love ain't no pose
She's not just some song you sing at shows
Chained to the wheel
Peace and love cut through steel
Peace and love, peace and love!
