

Poverty Sucks

Quasi

Drifting down a river of cars
I saw your name written up in the stars
I jumped ship and I'm down a hole
Deep underground like a lump of coal
Then a dream I never knew came true
They'll rattle your cage, they'll yank your chain
And all your dreams tumble down the drain
Never give up, never give in Poverty sucks but it ain't no sin
Then a dream you never knew comes true
