

Quas

I was sittin' back reminiscing the other day
I was thinking about how it was to be a kid
Man, we had no problems
Remember back in the days when we was kids
Everything was much simpler, very easier
No worries
Now as we grow up
Many problems, more worries, more worries
In a hurry, remember?

When we was young we used to chase dogs and cats
Now the only thing I seem to chase is rats
The ones that wanna use me for my best stacks
Tryina fix me up without a jim hat
So you can get child support, yo it's a dirty act
So I gotta turn up on the dirty mat
(keep it on the low)
That's what everybody says
Is everybody like this?
Ok.

Yeah man, I remember back in the days
I was never into girls, I was listening to music
Now look

When I was young, I used to chase rabbits
Now the only thing I seem to chase is bad habits
I gotta get a watch cause I'm never on time
Like when I bought that whole case of coronas and forgot lime (damn)
Roll up the weed and forget the lighter (hey, anybody got matches?)
Damn, I gotta get my shit tighter
Late for that, late for that
Wrong format, wrong sucker standing on my doormat

Yeah man
Can't seem to get away nowadays
I remember when I was a kid
Shit, I'm still a kid
