

Happy Now

Queen Adreena

I'll break your legs if I find out you are fucking him
Composure balanced by the drink
A slack jaw black djin
Smiles all bent and broken
If you are fucking him
Let's drink this precious moment
We sink it in the djin
Are you happy now?
Filled with bile and bruising
Against the kitchen sink
Give me a kiss
I'll slash my wrist
We'll watch the blood run pink
All those butterfly notions
Crash down from the sky
We'll watch her drown
Burn your house down
These stinking sheets we lie
Are you happy now?
Did you break a sweat?
Did you get wet?
Give me time to think
If you make an excuse make it obtuse
I'm hanging in the brink
Libido sucked up and spat out
Uh huh she's gone to seed
Let's set a course onto the rocks
Fuck you let's live the dream
