

Pull Me Under

Queen Adreena

and i sit here waiting and comb my hair wait in line your time will come says the man he waves his gun carpet burns beneath my name your finger prints i'll play your game i'll play your game
just pull me under
cast your blood to my open veins i won't tell them will just play your game
i'll play your game
i'll take the blame
close the curtains finger prints in dust she's been drowning and i drink her loss
i'll take the blame
i'll play your game
i'll play insane
