

Everybody Knows That You're Insane

Queens of the Stone Age

You ought to know
Why you feel so hollow --
'Cause you are.
You're missing out,
Well if you say so.
Then you're missing out.

Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.

You wanna know
Just how long you can hide from
What you are
Not very long.

I had been lost
Down every road I follow
Out in the dark,
On my way home.

Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.

And I feel the same.
Am I better yet?
And I feel the same.
Am I better yet?
And I feel the same.
Am I better yet?

Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.
Everybody knows that you're insane.
