

Long Haired Lady

Quicksilver Messenger Service

I find my mind falling like rainbows
Casting sweet shadows over the long [time moon glow?]
Unicorns prancing in my mind, [aligned?]
Sweet lady dancing here and I keep the time
I love you
My long-haired lady
Following gardens down to some soft stream
Falling down rivers, swirling on by downstream
Sweet honey dripping in the afternoon
High, lonely, flying, cries the sad, silver loon
I love you
My long-haired lady
Do you believe love at first sight lasts forever?
And can you know I loved you for life, in this hour?
And sometimes it gets a little shaky, huh
That's when you got to carry on; it'll be all right
It will be all right
My long-haired lady
Fairy moon maiden, won't you come by me
I have been waiting by the long, dark, cold sea
My ship is laden with sweet gifts for thee
My lovely lady, won't you dance by me
I love you
My long-haired lady
Do you believe love at first sight lasts forever?
And can you know I loved you for life, in this hour?
And sometimes it gets a little crazy, huh
That's when you got to hang on to me; it'll be all right
It will be all right
It'll be all right
My long-haired lady
