

Not So Close

Quidam

Have you ever felt the same?
Train of thoughts is hard to explain
Hidden meaning you cannot see
All it matters is to be

What I need is a bit of hope
The Only chance to cure my soul
What I want is an open mind
To free my life and kiss the sky

Tell me why everything`s so confused
Sophisticated guys in your neighborhood
Talking heads on the TV screen
Making speeches, not much clear

What I need is a bit of hope
The Only chance to cure my soul
What I want is an open mind
To free my life and kiss the sky

Hey baby I`m frickin out right here
Let`s find various sounds above the sun
We`ve got lots of time to get
Another place, another island

What I need is a bit of hope
The Only chance to cure my soul
What I want is an open mind
To free my life and kiss the sky

Looking for one simple day
When everything will change
It`s not so close...
