

I Lie Awake

Quietdrive

Can you hear me screaming?
Coming to find you.
Its not that I want to make it another night alone
This feeling is lonely
Sending me slowly
Hits me so deep it cuts my bone
Fills my heart
Burns me up
for way too long
for way too long
Here's my hand
Pull me up
I lie awake, because I'm scared
I'm not as fake as you once heard
But we'll lay down now
Making sure we put these words between us
Can you hear us falling
We're falling faster
Its hard to remember where we were at a year before
I thought we were ready
I thought we were steady
Till the emotion hit the floor
Fills my heart
Burns me up
for way too long
for way too long
Here's my hand
to pull me up
I lie awake, because I'm scared
I'm not as fake as you once heard
But we'll lay down now
Making sure we put these words between us
Don't put these words between us
I lie awake, because I'm scared
I'm not as fake as you once heard
But we'll lay down now
Making sure we put these words between us
I lie awake, because I'm scared
I'm not as fake as you once heard
And we'll take these words
And we'll put them down
On the floor beneath us
Don't put these words between us
Don't put these words between us
