

JUST ANOTHER DAY

Quietdrive

I've been running in circles, I've been holding onto you
I keep pushing and fighting hoping my dreams will come true
Baby I can't move on, baby it's been too long
Tell me I'm right or wrong if I'm never moving on
I keep on hanging on to ever word you sung
How could I ever forget you?

It's just another day of living without you
It's just another day, please tell me what am I supposed to do
If I could just make these feelings end
Then maybe I wouldn't have to spend
Just another day, just another day away from you, you, you

I think you might have forgotten all the things you did before
So now I gotta remind you, now tell me what a best friend's for
Do you remember when you were my medicine
We wouldn't waste a day, didn't care what they say
Now we're just broken hearts, now we're just worlds apart
Now I'm just trying to get through

Just another day of living without you
Just another day, please tell me what am I supposed to do?
If I could just make these feelings end
Then maybe I wouldn't have to spend
Just another day, just another day away from you

I feel insane, my heart is critical
How could I lose you, God I'm so typical Now I'm just replaying everything that we did
Sitting in my room talking to myself
Wondering how I've lost the only good thing that ever happened to me...

Just another day that I'll spend without you
It's just another day, now what the hell am I supposed to do?
If I could just make these feelings end
Then maybe I wouldn't have to spend
Just another day, just another day away from you, you, you
