

LONDON

Quietdrive

A cold summer night, I'm staying inside
Cuddled inside, what's better in life?
Oh and the city, it's so captivating
When the skyline smothers the night

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds
away

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds

There's no turning back, I'm broken inside
Lost in my thoughts, I'm out of my mind
Oh in the city, it's so suffocating
Why did God turn out your light?

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds

London on a foggy day, when the world turns to grey
Listen as the bells will ring, I'll think of you, you're worlds

You're worlds away
You're worlds away

You're worlds away
