

Ransom Diaries

Quietdrive

It's all a waste of my time
To be analyzed by my peers

Its all I can do to break away from anyone
Rips cuts scars across like painting glycerin
But I'll take my heart and brain and fight until I fall

Take your breath and selfish words
Cast the memories aside
Realign what you feel
It's another point to take
Hard to separate the feel
From when I'm awake
Spend time
Spend time on your own
So I'll take my chance with fate
Saying no
Whoaaa
And I'll find that my path fades
After all
Into dust
Before
I can fall

It's all a waste of my time
To be analyzed by my peers

Its all I can do to break away from anyone
Rips cuts scars across like painting glycerin

But I'll take my Heart and brain
And fly until I
Fall
(Fall away)

It will take my
My whole life time
To be where I
Where I was before
I was this time

It will take my
My whole life time
To be where I
Was before I
Started taking sides
And wasting
Lifetimes
Loves
Like before
