

THIS IS LOVE

Quietdrive

I'm gonna say something
I think you should hear
Don't let these words come out
And then disappear
Your usual way
No, don't be afraid
Cuz I'm not that type
To play make believe
I'm not gonna lecture you
About what this could be
But I will say
What I need to say
So listen carefully
This is love
Never felt so high
This is love
Looking in your eyes
When it feels so right
You can't say no
This is love
Love with no regrets
This is love
The kind you won't forget
This is love
I wanna know what you're thinking
So tell me e-very-thing
Just don't walk away
Don't walk away
I've spent these last few months living in this fear
Oh, but the last few days have been crystal clear
I know what to say
If only you'll hear
Honey, I don't expect you to think love is blind
But give it at least one chance,
Yea, just give it time
No, don't be afraid
Your usual way
Just listen carefully
This is love
Never felt so high
This is love
Looking in your eyes
When it feels so right
You can't say no
This is love
Love with no regrets
This is love
The kind you won't forget
This is love
I wanna know what you're thinking
I wanna know what you're thinking
I wanna know what you're thinking
Just don't walk away
Take your time
So you can feel
This thing called love
And make it real

Don't be afraid
Don't walk away
Love
Never felt so high
This is love
Looking in your eyes
When it feels so right
You can't say no
This is love
Love with no regrets
This is love
The kind you won't forget
This is love
I wanna know what you're thinking
I wanna know what you're thinking
I wanna know what you're thinking oh oh oh
I wanna know what you're thinking
Don't just walk away
