

Because I'm God

Quill

I'm gonna ride on the edge of tomorrow
I'm gonna carry myself on the lonesome breeze
I'm gonna enter the room of tomorrow
I'm gonna tear down the wall to my total defeat

Bow before me- because I'm God
You don't have to die before me - because I'm God

I'm gonna live in the eye of the storm, yeah
I'm gonna die though I never came close to life
I'm gonna break yeah whatever's around me
I'm gonna give to the rich from the fatherless child

Bow before me - because I'm God
All I'm asking do adore me - because I'm God
Well won't you come on and dance up- to my evil eye
You don't have to die before me - because I'm God
