

Hole In My Head

Quill

It seems I'm slowly giving in
I see the black hole, please begin
To wreck my 1999
Tear out the shattered soul of mine

Hole in my head

Let the beginning be the end
Let me return to yesterday
Here comes the earthquake, once again
I lay before you, I lay before you

Hole in my head

What I was given you did steal
Now I am you and you are me

Hole in my head
