

No Light On The Dark Side

Quill

I can see you on the mountain of belief
I can see you at the bottom of my dreams
I believe you're playing tricks upon my mind
Well I wish you could unwind

Right now, you'll learn
Alright now, your turn

I can tell from a hundred miles away
(I can tell from a hundred miles)
no light on the dark side
no light on the dark side

I can see you on a building looking right down
I can see you when you're crashing to the ground
Well I believe we believe, do you believe?
Once broken, can not be healed

Right now, you'll learn
Alright now, your turn

I can tell from a hundred miles away
(I can tell from a hundred miles)
no light on the dark side

Right now, right now
Right now, right now
