

Is It Love That We're Missin'

Quincy Jones

Well, the first time I saw you was the first time I lost you
And the first time I kissed you
Was the first time I missed you

There were times when tried
To get by with some love too
But the things that we went through
Were so cold, don't let me remind you

It takes one to be alone
And it takes two carry on
Tell me what you want to say
When you take my love
And just walk away

Is it love that we're missing?
Peace of mind we're no getting
Are the games that we're playing?
Simply our way of entertaining

Since the start you don't seem to Realize what I've been through Since the start I have tried to Make you see that I need you

It takes one to be alone
And it takes two carry on
Tell me what you want to say
When you take my love
And just walk away

There we're times when you trip to but it's but forgot to
Leave behind all the past fun
Sometimes I find it hard to comfort
Is this why we're not one?

Is it love that we're missing?
Peace of mind we're no getting
Tell me is it love that not one?

Yeah, is it love that we're missing?
Peace of mind we're not getting
Tell me is it love that we're missing

I tried so hard to make it work
But it seems to me only got hurt

Is it love that we're missing?
(Tell me, baby, I wanna know)
Peace of mind we're not getting
(tell me, is it love...)
Is it love that we're missing?
(I've tried so hard to it work....)
Is it love that wer're missing?
(Leave behind all the past fun

Is this why we're not one?)
