Definition Of A Rap Flow (albee 3000) [feat. Amalie Bruun]

R.A. the Rugged Man

Yo, let's begin it like this The definition of a rap flow, I'mma reinvent it like this Now what's that? Bust first, I bust back Must crush, bust gats, must bust, a small time crook I'm stealing your hubcaps, ain't nothing for discussion I'm crushing you're dust and you're done in when I'm busting the rough raps The Biz Mark, Biz Mark What is it? A blizzard - Is it a limit? Any crime you could name I commited I admit it, I did it Lottery, gotta be in it to win it I'm just a white boy ruining what blacks invented But I'm the baddest, undefeated Beat it, believe it, leaving you leaking, losing blood like an anemic I'm rather conceited Rappers are comedic, heated leaving you paraplegic I'm undeniable, diabolical, biological warfare Rugged that raggedy bastard His breath stink like he gargling with battery acid Who would've figured me to be deadly? They never be ready to bury me Better be ready, nobody better than me I feel it, so groovy now Rugged Man's flow will fuck your whole head up I feel it, so groovy now (Let's begin it like this The definition of a rap flow, I'mma reinvent it like this) Rugged Man's flow is uglier than blind dates My mental is heavy like Heavy D & Chubb Rock combined weights I love myself, I'm so vain I'm not just the king of New York, I'm the king of the whole game Putting rappers in hibernation, they're hiding away For retirement they're racing, it's funny, like a pie in the face And devastating, made a mistake And you're waiting, debating, facing your fate And creating, hating, raping, imitating, the great And break in your place and taking your safe and taking your paper Paying for faking, this is history in the making, but wait Spit at the cops, I'm resisting arrest They wanna see me fry like a chicken wing and a breast The truth is, behind closed doors I'm a bit of a sissy Singing love ballads to bitches like Lionel Richie No joking, bragging and boasting hoping to get close and approach 'em Poke 'em, perking, and posing, putting poison in the potion Cooking the coke and cutting your throat and opening the potion Leaving you floating in the ocean You was Aaliyah rocking the boat and Leaving ya broken, you could get Smokey to second that emotion Explosion of flowing, overdosing, the chosen has spoken Sing I feel it, so groovy now

Rugged Man's flow will fuck your whole head up I feel it, so groovy now (Let's begin it like this The definition of a rap flow, I'mma reinvent it like this)

Rat-tat-tat sporadic, attack panic Laying you down like craftmatic You dissing missing your fingertips You crack addict, I've had it I'm back at it, the mathematic Bringing the black magic attack Hold up, let's slow it down with these raps Let me catch my breath, let my brain relax I'm so fly, I'm basically levitating I'm in the Guinness book, record breaking Hit you with a chair like the World Wrestling Federation I got a bad reputation Doc want to put me on a better medication Cops hate me, harass me, interrogation I'm dumb in the head, lack of education That's enough, wait a minute I'm finished, I'm done with it Yo Swan, sing it

I feel it, so groovy now Rugged Man's flow will fuck your whole head up I feel it, so groovy now (Let's begin it like this The definition of a rap flow, I'mma reinvent it like this)

My house is the Albee square mall (repeated)
