

Just Like That

R. Kelly

Oh baby,
If I could explain the joy I feel

Oooh If I could explain the joy I feel
All this love makin is oh so real
Oooh like winter time by the fireplace
Oooh like trapped in walls and its no escape
Oooh like a precious jewel with no price tag
Oooh like waterfalls comin' down on me
Oooh like tidal wave comin' from the sea
Oooh like a favorite scene in a big movie

You wanna know how I feel just like that, just like that baby (Ooooooh)
You wanna know how I feel just like that, just like that baby (If you wanna know)
You wanna know how I feel just like that, just like that baby (Ooooh Just like)
You wanna know how I feel just like that, just like that baby

Oooh like you and me makin' history baby
Oooh like a 99th anniversary
Oooh like a baby when it speaks its first words
Oooh like an uplifting song the first time heard
Oooh like a shelter when the storm gets ruff
Oooh like a mountain top from the bottom up
Oooh like an expensive suite at the best hotel
Oooh like a work of art when its unveiled

You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (like that)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (oh oh oh oh oh, if you wanna know)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (just like that yeah)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that (Ooooh)

Oooh like a great blue sky's on a summer day
Oooh like sittin close in a small cafe
Oooh like makin love to someone you love
Oooh like breakin up then makin up
Oooh like a warm embrace when you come around
Oooh like the sweetest words when your feelin down
Oooh like lost inside of a masquerade
Oooh like a celebration in a big parade
Oooh like a secret told to the one you trust
Oooh like kissin you in a all white tux

You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (If you wanna know)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (Just like that, if you wanna know)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that baby (Just like that)
You wanna know how I feel, just like that, just like that

Like the moon, yeah when it glows at night, and like the sun oh yeah when it shines real bright,
and just like the ocean when the well comes high,

Like an eagle when it soars the sky
