You won't have to work for nothing after I give you this loving
Touching you, touching me, sexual chemistry
Girl seems like your body's ready and I know you wont regret it
Turn the lights down low ready to let my juices flow
Baby double lock the door, let's start right here on this floor
Sounds like the perfect plan, we're seconds away from loveland
All you gotta do is take my hand, now tell me baby who's your man
You babe

Baby I dont mind if you take off my clothes
Let it go, let it flow, it's alright, it's okay, we're alone baby
Baby girl you can be loud, noone will know
