

Oh, La

Ra Ra Riot

See a world that's quite,
Not half the way there.
Some days our future
Seems to hang on too tight.

Come quickly now,
The air hangs heavily today.
Oh no,
What is that crimson in the shade?

Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.

I wouldn't say the word now.
This is not what I meant.
For a woman that's fallen over head and heels.
And still so warm,
But I'm lonely too.
Suddenly she is still and says
"I hope that things will be better here".

Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.

Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
Oh, la, we've got a lot to learn from each other.
We have got to stick together.
