Being Alive

Rachael Lampa

I don't wanna wake up in a crowded room No room to move Clowns to the left of me Jokers sniffing helium from balloons Cuz they got nothin better to do You know those days when you can't hear above the noise And all your doubts deployed It's getting late and you're getting bored With the status you cling to

Oooooh

Being alive is breathin in and breathin out, oh Being alive is knowin what you're gonna live for It's knowing you got something you can't live without oh Love love love love love love

Do you ever wake up and find that you're The only one that's standing still Just part of the drill- no big deal Today is just another thing to get through And as the day goes passing by I run down the list of things I meant to try I meant to fly I just never got around to it

So say you will, so say you won't give in when love comes And when it does you're asking where will it come from You will live long enough to learn, long as you have some Love love love love love love

Being alive is breathin in and breathin out, oh Being alive is knowin what you're gonna live for It's knowing you got something you can't live without oh Love love love love love love

Being alive is breathin in and breathin out, oh Being alive is knowin what you're gonna live for It's knowing you got something you can't live without oh Love love love love love love
