

Blessed

Rachael Lampa

I may never climb a mountain
So I can see the world from there.
I may never ride the waves
And taste the salty ocean air,
Or build a bridge
That will last a hundred years;
But no matter where the road leads
One thing is always clear...

I am blessed, I am blessed.
From when I rise up in the morniný,
ýTil I lay my head to rest
I feel You near me.
You soothe me when Iým weary.
Oh Lord, for all the worst and all the best
I am blessed.

All along the road less traveled
I have crawled and I have run.
I have wandered through the wind and rain
Until I found the sun.
The watching eyes ask me why
I walk this narrow way...
I will gladly give the Reason
For the hope I have today!

I am blessed, I am blessed.
From when I rise up in the morniný,
ýTil I lay my head to rest
I feel You near me.
You soothe me when Iým weary.
Oh Lord, for all the worst and all the best
I am blessed!

Youýve given me joy (joy).
Youýve given me love (love).
You give me strength
When I want to give up.

You came from heaven
To rescue my soul...
This is the reason I know,
I know...

I know Iým blessed, (I am blessed.)
From when I rise up in the morniný,
ýTil I lay my head to rest,
I feel You near me.
You soothe me when Iým weary.
Oh Lord, for all the worst and all the best...oh,
Oh Lord, for all the worst and all the best
I am blessed! Oh, yeah
