

For Your Love

Rachael Lampa

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
I would crawl across the mighty desert for Your love

You set the world in motion, You made the stars and oceans
And everything that breathes, yeah, yeah
You cause the sky to thunder
You fill the world with wonder and that amazes me

That You would plan all my days eternally
Long before I was born You dreamt of me
If it weren't for Your company
Then where would be, yeah

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
I would crawl across the mighty desert for Your love

No one else can know me
No one else could hold me, the way You do
You fill my life with passion
And I cannot imagine a world without You, yeah

Looking down on the ground from up above
Can You feel my devotion and my love
If I could spend everyday with You
It wouldn't be enough

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
I would crawl across the mighty desert for Your love

My love, I give it all to You
My love, I give it all to You

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
I would crawl across the mighty desert for Your love

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
I would crawl across the mighty desert for Your love

I would climb up an endless moutain for Your love
