

Give Your Heart Away

Rachael Lampa

Ooh...
Do you think
That your time on Earth will never fade?
In the blink
Of an eye, you may be swept away.
This is true;
Make the most of ev'ry moment that is given you...
To hold onto.

So, give your heart away.
This is not the time to hesitate.
For there is no other reason --
You will find no better season.
Tomorrow may not come for those who wait.
So call on Him, and
Give your heart away.

There are days
When there is no place that feels like home;
And you need
To believe that you are not alone.
Long ago,
Jesus came to show you
That His love is through all time;
That's why He gave His life...

So, give your heart away.
This is not the time to hesitate.
For there is no other reason --
You will find no better season.
So call on Him, and give your heart away.

There is Hope for your tomorrows,
Come what may.
There's no mountain so high;
No place in the sky
You can't reach, reach, reach, yeah, oh yeay-yeah!

So, give your heart away.
This is not the time to hesitate.
For there is no other reason --
You will find no better season.
So call on Him, and give your heart away, yeah.
Call on Him, and give your heart away, ooh
