Human

Rachael Lampa

Everyone loves a perfect song, a perfect melody
If that's what you want then that's the song I'll try to sing
With every note I sing you think you hear a symphony
What will you do when I'm out of tune?

Something is really beautiful between you and me
But I've only let you see what I want you to see
Don't want to hide behind a lie but I'm afraid to speak
What would you do if you knew the truth?

When you find out it wasn't me that hung the moon
I'm not responsible for making flowers bloom
Didn't separate night from day or make the ocean blue
What will you do when you find out I'm human too?
I'm human, I'm human, I'm human

If I show you my scars, and tears, and fears and all my tragedies
Everything I hold inside a secrecy
I try and I try to tell myself
Even the broken stone can shine out in the light
I hope that I'm right

When you find out it wasn't me that hung the moon
I'm not responsible for making flowers bloom
Didn't separate night from day or make the ocean blue
What are you gonna do now you know the truth?
Just like you, I am human too

Sometimes I laugh, sometimes I cry (I'm human, I'm human)
One day I fall one day I fly (I'm human, I'm human) I try to hold it all inside (I'm human, I'm human) Oh, but now I know that I can't hide (I'm human, I'm human too)
Yea, I'm human too
Hope you hear what I'm trying to say, this is how I was made, I'm human
Hope you hear what I'm trying to say, this is how I was made, I'm human
I hope you hear what I'm trying to say, this is how I was made, I'm human
I hope you hear what I'm trying to say, this is how I was made, I'm human too (I'm human, I'm human)
