

Sara's Song

Rachael Sage

Don't know what you were thinking
when you looked at me and smiled.
Should've seen this boat sinking but my heart was beating wild.
Don't know what I was doing
it's not like I'm unattached.
When you asked me for my number should've
just shook my head and laughed.
Say a prayer for me Sara cause I've got it good
And if I could I would go back in time
And I would spare you this fickle heart of mine
Don't know what you were thinking
When you asked me for a dance Should've just turned my back on your Figments of fine romance
Can't say what kept me talking
When I should've held my peace
Could've just kept on walking Pheonix upon her knees now
Say a prayer for me Sara cause I've got it good
And if I could I would go back in time
And I would spare you this fickle heart of mine.
Tragedy makes you stronger
Poetry breaks it down Wisdom was a surprise I never Counted on from this town
You to me speak in rhythms
And I hear your music loud
Oceans of necessity - bandaging up my doubt
Don't know what you were thinking
when you looked at me and smiled.
Should've seen this boat sinking
but my heart was beating wild.
Don't know what I was doing
it's not like I'm unattached.
When you asked me for my number should've
just shook my head and laughed
Say a prayer for me Sara cause I've got it bad
And if I had the chance I would
And I would spare you this fickle heart of mine
