

Black Sheep

Rachael Yamagata

Don't take it personally
You've done nothing wrong
You're right where you should be
We're all going home

Black sheep will rise up
Just before the dawn
You're the only one
Who can break them down

I know the road has been long
They're on their own road too
You try so hard to be strong
Everyone watching you

Black sheep will rise up
Just before the dawn
You're the only one
Who can break them down

I'll always stay by your side
Forever holding your hand
Your time is coming to shine
Soon they'll all understand

Just before the dawn
You're the only one
Who can break them down
You're the only one
