

Ode To...

Rachael Yamagata

No thanks
No more
No love

I'm done
I've had enough

You're going off with her and I wish I was but there's another can be just because

All right
be on your way
the kindest thing to say is not that you have fallen for me say you'll come back to my arms again someday

Baby, write some words about how you can't shut me out how you must find a way to see me one more time

One more time

And please call up all your friends and tell them it can't end
you don't know what you'd do if you lost her

And lost me too

That's fine
That's good That's nice

I understand the price
The cost of craving dark instead of light
I flip a coin to see if you still care tonight

My blood
My hand
My soul

I've thrown them onto you without control
The things I freely give you stole
And now I'm left in pieces

Baby tell
the world about me
the way you won me over in a city you can't remember You think it was September sweet September

Oh baby
Oh it's all right
I know she needs you more than I do
And I wouldn't win this fight
But there is one thing that you've gotta do, you've gotta tell the world about a girl you once knew Oh she wasn't meant to be but you fell so very deeply in love

With me

To all the girls he's loved
