Silk

Rachel Stevens

Dangerous is you to me, addicted I sure am
Lock me up and keep me from this devil's master plan
It mystifies me how you drive me crazy with a kiss
Spellbound, boy, I still dream of this

I like the way you look at me Every mornin' when I wake up I can't deny sometimes I believe Give me what I need

Your touch is like silk
Strokin' my body
Softer than skin
Bringin' my pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Makin' me shiver
Makin' me sweat
I must get free of this boy I cant forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Silk

Fragile is this broken heart, can't take this pain no more Inflammable is my whole life, yes, I've been burned before Keep my distance, though I'm drawn to everything I miss Tongue tied, I can still taste your kiss

I like the way you smile at me
In the evening 'cross a crowded room
I can't forget how good it feels
When you're close to me

Your touch is like silk
Strokin' my body
Softer than skin
Bringin' my pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Makin' me shiver
Makin' me sweat
I must get free of this boy I cant forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Silk

Your touch is like silk Strokin' my body Softer than skin Bringin' my pleasure in Your touch is like silk Makin' me shiver Makin' me sweat...

Your touch is like silk Strokin' my body Softer than skin Bringin' my pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
Makin' me shiver
Makin' me sweat
I must get free of this boy I cant forget
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
Your touch is like
