

Before You Leave

Racoon

Before you leave
Before you leave me now
Tell me where the hell I am
Before you're taken down
Won't you tell me once again
Before you get the chance
Don't take away my memories
Before you leave me now

Before you leave me now
Tell me where I'm gonna go
If I start walking now
Then the sooner I will know
Before I get the chance
To take it out on you again
Before you leave me now

'Cause your life's been vinegar on ice
Now you're leaving
Just before you say goodbye
Believe me, believe when I
Say that I'll miss you
Please believe when I
Say that I'll miss you

I miss you

Before you leave me now
Tell me you will be alright
That there's not much to say
And all you know is that it's time
Before I lose the chance
To say goodbye to you again
Before you leave me now

I won't ask you to stay anymore
Now you're leaving
But just before you shut the door
Won't you believe me, believe when I
Say that I'll miss you
Please believe when I
Say that I'll miss you
When I say that I'll miss you
I say that I'll miss you

I miss you
