Walk Away

You cover your eyes, if you can't stand the side walk away You cover your ears, so you don't have to hear walk away You cover your nightmares, you put them away 'cause if nobody knows then they might go away Walk away, walk away, walk away without me

You cover your lies with stories and smiles walk away You're scared what to find so you just run and hide you run away If you play with a gun then you will shoot someone when you sit in the fire it's your ass getting warm Walk away, walk away, walk away Without me, without me, without me

Why do yell, you can whisper as well walk away These teardrops of rain, they're masking your shame you walk away In this midsummer storm you see a midsummer fight put your head in the sand if you can't make it right Walk away, walk away, walk away, without me Racoon
