

Eye of Yours

Radiation City

Your eyes are an endless boast
A gorgeous, elegant toast
You lend them to me when I'm already drunk on your praise.

Your smile like broken bottles
Is like time, is like a kite chasing its tail,
In the windless and cloudless sky.

The raindrops fall, but you wouldn't know.
The raindrops fall, but you wouldn't know.
The raindrops fall, but you wouldn't know.
