

Stitches In My Side

Radical Face

My heart's lost in the movies
My laughs fit for TV
My thoughts are radio friendly
What've you done to me

I've seen all this before
My head's a civil war
When I'm bored
When I'm bored

But I'll do what I can
There's nothing in my plans
But staying sane
But stay insane

We wrote down our white lies
Until the ink ran dry
Then we quit
Then we quit

Cause stitches in my side
Are coming out tonight
I'm through with this
I'm through with this

My record's never cling
It's what impatience brings
To my plate
To my plate

I was doomed from the start
So when this falls apart
I'm not my end
I'm not my end

Come marching through graveyards
Of modern ???
Values long forgotten

I think we've all lost our minds
I think we've all lost our minds

Alright now

Now that I've been ???
My heads just one big noose
And I'm sick
And I'm sick

But I'll do what I can
There's nothing in my plans
But stay insane
