

Cheap Drink

Radical Something

Hey

Comin' at me, comin' at me now

And I swear yesterday it was just a day
Until I found out my investments say
I've been spending more time in the beverage lane
Where the cheap drinks flow and I spend my change
And everybody wanna talk that talk
Walk that walk when they walk my block
And if you really wanna take that shot
Better brace up pops, got the place on lock

I be at the cantina steady sippin on a rum
With a pretty señorita, I be dippin til it's done
Are you with it cuz I'm bout it mama now it's time to go

I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave
I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave

Yeah I got the sun beating down on the back back back of my neck
It's hotter than hell in this place
Got my body drippin with sweat
I need cerveza that's co-oh-old
Before I get to o-oh-old
Yeah, I found my oasis--pineapple chases
Old boy chillin' in the dive-iest places

I be at the cantina steady sippin on a rum
With a pretty señorita, I be dippin til it's done
Are you with it cuz I'm bout it mama now it's time to go

I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave
I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave

Are you with it can you feel me?
Yeah everybody knows, they always let us in the back door
Everybody can you hear me?
Bartender you know, line em up for me people, five more, let's go

Damn right it's a great time when it's break time
And we're lakeside yellin' gimme one more for the eighth time
While I bob my head to the bass line
You can feel it right?
Did I hear you right?
Tastes so fine when I chase with limes that I paid for mine with a case of d imes

I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave
I'm just lookin' for a cheap drink
Cuz I'm hotter than a heat wave

C'mon C'mon

Feel this all the way down to your soul
